Caroline Huey: Hans Folz and Print Culture in Late ...
Although Hans Folz has been recognized as a major late medieval German poet and printer of his own works for some time now, Caroline Huey's monograph might well be the first one in English to discuss this Nuremberg barber surgeon, poet and printer. In six chapters she examines Folz's works and a variety of themes, first reflecting on him as a person, on his specific position in late-medieval Nuremberg, and on the interest that he has found in modern research.
