"In Search of Song: The Life and Times of Lucy Broadwood ...

Broadwood was far more than just a folk song collector and researcher—a member of the piano manufacturing family, she was also a composer and performer, able to move between the worlds of classical and traditional music with ease. She was a widely read, well-educated, upper-middle-class, Victorian polymath, and a strong, independent-minded woman with many interests and skills. Coupled with a
