Synopsis The Inscrutable Americans is a fun and delightful read. The book talks about one year spent on the American University by an Indian student. His English is comical and his initial notions of America are absurdly inadequate and stereotyped.

The Inscrutable Americans - Anurag Mathur

The Inscrutable Americans is an amusing variation on the way too familiar theme of the innocent abroad, and remains of some interest, both in how foreigners see the United States, and how Indians (of a particular time and class) fare abroad.
