The mask of normalcy : social conformity and its ambiguities

Unstable social conformity within "normal" behavior -- Theories of personality and the equivocation of "normalcy" -- Stress, coping, and social conformity -- Conformists versus nonconformists -- The "normal" psychopath -- Social conformity in a polarized society. Responsibility: George Serban.

The Mask of Normalcy: Social Conformity and Its ...
New social codes of "correct" conduct blur the distinction between true and false, right and wrong; and social conflict simmers as a result. What society perceives as well adjusted may even change within a society over time, depending on prevailing social values.
