The Poetics of Crime: Understanding and Researching Crime ...
The book is divided into four sections exploring in turn (i) the creative and symbolic nature of crime and social control, (ii) how fiction can help to understand criminological concepts, (iii) the representation of crime and deviance in popular culture and (iv) creative approaches for understanding crime and deviance.
The poetics of crime: understanding and researching crime ...
The poetics of crime is an edited collection that genuinely forms a united whole; however, what makes it unusual is its eloquence and aplomb challenge to the criminological academy. It states that now is the time to face the criminological crisis; now is the time to address the crippling of criminology; and now is the time to unleash critical creative cultural criminology upon the world.
